| 1. Headquarters has not received any information on the establishment of an independent Palestinian Government in Jordan. In all probability this is a violation of the old terms. However, it is also possible that Haj Amin Husayni, aware of the waning importance of his Higher Arab Committee, and stimulated by the recent Arab League Conference, takes on the establishment of a Palestinian entity, has reconstituted the Higher Arab Committee Government organization in the hope that if a Palestinian Republic is established, he can point to his group as a representative headquarters. 2. On this same subject, we call your attention to State Department Publication 684-6409 of 30 January (copy to Bureau) which reviews an AP story of 20 January of Haj Amin's Higher Arab Committee's participation in an Arab coalition that sent a note to King Hussein and UNR President Haski proposing the creation of a State of Palestine made out of the West Bank of Jordan and the East Bank, and placed under United Nations trusteeship to be administered by Jordan. 3. Also, the Cairo Press carried two articles on Haj Amin Husayni's plan to form a Free Palestinian Government in exile in Amman, a copy of which is attached as it appears not to have been sent to you. | | | |
